A 65-year-old male came in an eye OPD with the complain of progressing lower lid mass since 4 months. On examination, there was an ulcer with a central necrotic area, irregular margins and diffuse thickening of lid. The lesion was excised and sent for histopathology. Based on history, clinical examination and histopathology slide, what is your diagnosis?